Association for Women in Technology Presents “Woman of the Month” award to Judy Greenspon

IRVINE, Calif., March 4th 2009 — The Association for Women in Technology (AWT), the county’s only not-for-profit supporter of women in all fields of technology and science, awarded Judy Greenspon as this month’s winner of the “Woman of the Month Award”. Every month AWT honors women in Southern California that are making strides for all of us in the field of technology. This award is for women that are:

- Role models for women in technology;
- Involved with industry advances;
- Paving the way for women by her accomplishments;
- In a technical position after overcoming great diversity.

Congratulations to Judy Greenspon, for her dedication and commitment to AWT! Judy is President of a privately held corporation, NPI Services, Inc. and is an active member and In-Kind Sponsor of the AWT. Judy takes an active role within the technology community, leading a company on the forefront of technology, and actively serves as a mentor with the NAWBO-OC mentorship program - AWT’s affiliate organization. Additionally, most recently Judy spoke to a group of UCI engineering students and the public at the UCI McDonnell Douglas Engineering Auditorium on February 5th, where Judy shared her real-world experience and insight to the theory and practice of entrepreneurship. Judy’s leadership, vision and passion for technology are a wonderful inspiration to all women in the field of technology!

AWT is delighted to present this prestigious award to Judy, as she continues to make a difference within the technology community and serves as a role model in the field of women in technology. AWT appreciates your support and congratulates you in this outstanding achievement!
